Since we can’t host everyone at Kemper Museum for Scavenger Saturday this month, we are bringing the hunt to you! Here are some things for you to find, create, and explore in your own space in relation to artwork from the exhibition, Summer Wheat: Blood, Sweat, and Tears. Let us see what you’ve created by posting a picture on social media using the hashtag #KemperMuseum or tagging @kempermuseum!

Can you find...

Biting Nails, 2018

Funny things to put on your fingers, like bag clips or playdough, and take a “hand selfie” photo or make a drawing of what they look like?

A blank wall to put on a shadow puppet show?

Or nail polish to paint your nails (or someone else’s!) with unique designs?

Midnight Snack, 2019

A favorite snack food to draw or paint?

The ingredients to make a snack for yourself or someone else?

Or your favorite food and write a poem about how it tastes?

Dirty Turtles, 2019

Blocks, boxes, or other objects to color on and stack on top of each other to create towers?

An image of an animal to take a photo of or draw, paint, etc.?

Or your favorite animal and write a story about its life?

Night Garden, 2018

- a plant in your yard or inside your house to draw, paint, or photograph?
- a garden or outdoor spot to sit or walk in and notice the smells, sights, and sounds in nature?
- OR different images or drawings of plants, flowers, and trees to create your own secret garden?

Beekeepers, 2019

- a song that you think the figures in the artwork could dance to?
- puffballs, beads, pipe cleaners, colored paper, etc. to create your own bees in a beehive?
- OR words that start with the letter “B” to write an entire poem about bees?
